

Queen Victoria Look-A-Like Competition 2010 Official Entry Form

Whereas We have taken into Our Royal Consideration the 191st birthday of Queen Victoria, Toronto's pre-eminent hotel and Canada's first premium Gin will hereby rejoice with rhinestones, croquet, and a stiff cuppa. A new Queen Victoria weekend hotel package is being launched and public search commences for a Queen Victoria Look-A-Like. The crowning of the true Queen Look-A-Like will take place during a public competition and crowning ceremony at:

Toronto's Fairmont Royal York hotel, 12-4pm on Victoria Day, May 24, 2010

Host Sir Real (Bob Blumer of Food Networks Surreal Gourmet/ Glutton for Punishment), guest Miss Conception, and celebrity judges will look on as queens are born, reign, and fall.

Competition Details

The Competition will see queens young and old vie for the crown in noble domains of poise, skill and knowledge. All participants must prepare a short presentation of a royal skill or talent (approx. 3 minutes). Also they are advised that the knowledge component will test an understanding of Victorian society and/or the ability to embellish with aplomb.

All participants will receive a 10% discount at Malabar costume shop (<http://www.malabar.net>).

All participants must be present from 11am through to 4pm on May 24th.
